

COMMITTEE: Special Committee

QUESTION OF: Inter-Korean Relations, Reunification and the Response of the International Community

MAIN SUBMITTER: Republic of Niger

CO-SUBMITTERS: Australia, Canada, New Zealand

The special committee would like to,

Pointing out, in 1974, North Korea joined the International Atomic Energy Agency, but eventually withdrew after it was found to have hidden unreported plutonium,

Recognizing, The UN sanctions against North Korea's development of nuclear weapons and ballistic missiles are necessary steps for a future united, peaceful and secured Korean Peninsula,

Calls for taking into consideration the human rights degradation and the awful conditions from the camps praising the efforts of the UN and Korean Peninsula Energy Development Organization for reconciliation between two Koreas,

Acting, The International Committee of the Red Cross supported physical rehabilitation programs in North Korea in 2015, orthopedic surgery programs, and the Kaesong Water Project,

1. Stressing the urgency and importance of the human rights issue by establishing the human rights organization.
 - a. National Support of Human Rights in North Korea (NSHRNK); establishing organization for supportive North Korean human rights, It is held in Toronto, Canada, and has a regular meeting every two months on the third Saturday,
 - i. campaign to address human rights issues in North Korea Promoting North Korea's Human Rights, Using Join Nation's SNS and YouTube Platform
 - ii. collaboration with the Human Rights Watch, discusses human rights issues in North Korea, produces card news and newspapers, and strives to provide global support,
2. Emphasizes the need of increasing the cultural cooperation between DPRK and ROK
 - a. fosters trust by implementing K-Youth Exchange Program (KYEP) every first week of the month,
 - i. this program is cultural exchange include music, art, book materials, or making collaborative exhibitions in North and South Korea;
3. Emphasizes aiding humanitarian, health care and spiritual programs
 - a. support those NGO's that help North Koreans both inside and outside their borders through leadership training programs and food and medicine aid projects,
 - b. relief for the most North Korean vulnerable populations: women, children, the elderly, the sick and prisoners;

4. Calls upon improving middle-class financial transparency Issue

- a. Increase the autonomy of state-owned enterprises managers and encourage private initiatives;
 - i. Empowering the middle class workers through international fund programmes could provide the framework for a reformative process inside North Korea.